Hi Catherine, I'm sending you the final SAB report on BaP and I've extracted their bulleted recommendations below that may pertain to the section you worked on (see PDF pages 20-26). In some cases, these recommendations may be not worth the LOE. But then we will have to think about a polite way to say that. Or maybe there is an easier way to partially address their comments with some additional text.

As you probably know, BaP is on a very compressed schedule, so I would like to get a sense from you after you have skimmed over the comments about how long you think it would take to address these recommendations/comments.
